

Introducing

DR. PHELAN'S NEW 1-2-3 MAGIC PARENTING BLOG

Dear Friends,

We're excited to introduce Dr. Phelan's brand new 1-2-3 Magic parenting blog. Our goal is to make it as entertaining and informative as possible. We all learned the hard way that parenting is a lot more difficult than we ever expected. Even Dr. Phelan recently admitted that three days after passing out the cigars, he wanted to take the first kid back to the hospital!

In the 1-2-3 Magic blog, Dr. Phelan will talk about how parents really deal with the TOTAL revolution in their daily lives that comes with having kids. He'll also discuss practical, down-to-earth ways of managing whining, picking up after yourself, sibling rivalry, going to bed (and staying there) and a whole bunch of other let's shape-this-place-up-so-we-can get-back-to-enjoying-our-children-again ideas.

Parenting is not for the faint of heart! This blog won't be either. From zero to eighteen (or more) is a long road. Join us and share your ideas!

Best regards,

The ParentMagic Team
